Notices

Church in the Hall on 26 May due to maintenance

As mentioned in recent weeks, there are a number of repair and maintenance jobs required for the church building. This work will commence on Monday, 20 May.

- Painting of church building exterior and interior, together with remediation of cracks where we are able.
- Upgrade of some of the church interior lighting.
- Scaffolding to be installed and relocated as each section of the work is undertaken.

We would be greatly helped by some strong volunteers helping us to move pews and other items after the 10.30 am service on 19 May.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact one of the Parish Council members.

St George's Internationals: Community Nights

Saturday 18 May, 5.30-8pm, then fortnightly.

To register (no charge) or for more information go to upcoming events on the church website.

Morning tea

Parish Council has decided that we will, in due course, return to sharing morning tea after the 10.30 am service. This will enable us to better welcome newcomers. 10.30 attendees are still encouraged to attend the morning tea between the services as a great way to develop fellowship across the congregations.

First communion course - starts this week

We are offering a First Communion course for children aged roughly 7-12. It will start this Wednesday at 3.45 pm for 7 weeks, meeting in the foyer or library. Please speak to Mike for more details.
